Celebration White

from Equus Run Vineyards

Rating: Excellent

I had an entire group of snotty Los Angelinos demanding we open this wine just so we could make fun of it. There's a white rose on the label, it's from Kentucky, and its name is clearly a desperate attempt to market the wine for weddings and derbies. We were going to bury this wine. And yet, it was delightful. Fun and light like a pinot grigio but drier and smarter without trying too hard, maybe like an Italian Orvieto. Kentucky, you charmed me.—by Joel Stein
